Hi Ma'am this is V.Ganesh Siddhartha, from Jain University and I'm ready to start my internship/Full-time opportunity as a cloud engineer from January.

And as you requested ma'am I am okay to relocate to Pune if the company for the first 6 months if the company is providing any extra allowance, otherwise I would like to request you that we will be happy to get training from Bangalore itself so that it will be convenient for us to work as well as in case of any academic exams and manage the college work accordingly, it will be helpful for us to attend those better from Bangalore than Pune, so please consider this we cloud engineers discussed on this and everyone have the same concern and everyone are ok to start getting trained from January so please look into this and update us regarding.

Thank you
